• Visitors to historic Natchitoches are frequently heard stumbling over the city’s name (pronounced Nack-a-tish). It is a Caddo Indian word meaning the “Chinquapin eaters.”

• Natchitoches, the original French Colony in Louisiana, was founded by Louis Juchereau de St. Denis in 1714.

• Natchitoches is located in Central Louisiana off Interstate 49.

• It’s the oldest city in Louisiana and home to the Cane River National Heritage Area, one of only two in the state of Louisiana.

• Natchitoches commemorated its 300th anniversary in 2014, making it the oldest permanent settlement in the entire Louisiana Purchase.

Three hundred years ago, Louisiana was an exotic and somewhat unforgiving wilderness that adventurer and entrepreneur Louis Juchereau de St. Denis saw as an alluring opportunity. In 1714, he established a trading post on the banks Red River, now known as Cane River Lake, making Natchitoches the first European settlement in the entire Louisiana Purchase.

As Louisiana’s original French colony and the oldest city in the Louisiana Purchase, Natchitoches is a unique blend of French, Spanish, African, American Indian and Creole which is reflected in the culture and architecture.

Natchitoches is a favorite destination for visitors from around the world. Located in Northwest Louisiana, Natchitoches is a one-of-a-kind community full of culture, history, recreation, shopping and more!

At the heart of Natchitoches lies the National Historic Landmark District that serves as a shopping and dining paradise and a bed & breakfast lover’s dream.

Stretched along the banks of the beautiful Cane River, Natchitoches is home to three state historic sites and two National Historical Park sites, Creole plantations, and museums all within the boundaries of the Cane River National Heritage Area.

Come discover the little city with a big history, Natchitoches, Louisiana! Visit www.Natchitoches.com to plan your trip today!
Cane River National Heritage Area

Cane River National Heritage Area located in Natchitoches is a largely rural, agricultural landscape known for its historic plantations, Creole architecture and multicultural legacy. Historically, this 116,000 acre region lay at the intersection of French and Spanish colonial realms.

Today, it is home to a unique blend of cultures, including French, Spanish, African, American Indian and Creole.

Experience the stories of this region as you travel the Cane River National Heritage Trail, a Louisiana Scenic Byway. Stretching from the Spanish presidio of Los Adaes to the southern tip of Natchitoches Parish, the highways and byways of the Cane River region will engage you whether your interest is in historic plantations, military history, Creole culture and cuisine, or the scenic beauty of the area’s lakes, rivers and forest.
Oakland Plantation

Cane River Creole National Historical Park consists of Oakland Plantation and the outbuildings at Magnolia Plantation. These plantations are two of the most intact Creole plantations in the United States. Both the plantations were established in the 1700s and were owned and operated by the same families for the next 200 years. Today, the landscapes contain 65 historic structures surrounded by 200 year old live oak trees. Visitors to both sites will experience the evolution of plantation culture.

Oakland has 17 of its original outbuildings still remaining. Outbuildings still on the plantation include two pigeon-niers, an overseer’s house, massive roofed log corn crib, carriage house, mule barn (that was originally a smoke-house,) carpenter’s shop and cabins. The historic property is a National Bicentennial Farm, only one of two such Farms west of the Mississippi River, both of which are in Natchitoches Parish. Part of the Cane River Creole National Historical Park, Oakland was acquired by the National Park Service in 1998. Open daily 8 am to 4 pm, closed Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day. Admission is free. (318) 356-8441. www.nps.gov/cari.
Magnolia Plantation Complex
- Cane River Creole National Historical Park

5549 Hwy. 119, Derry, LA 71416
The Magnolia Plantation Complex, 18 acres of outbuildings, is open to the public and free to tour as a unit of Cane River Creole National Historical Park. The Park includes a blacksmith shop, plantation store, gin barn, eight cabins, and former slave hospital that at various times housed the owners and overseer. The gin barn houses a wooden screw-type cotton press, the last such press remaining in its original site in the United States. (318) 356-8441. Open daily 8 am to 4 pm with self-guided tours, closed Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day. Admission is free.

Association for Preservation Historic Natchitoches

Melrose Plantation
3533 Hwy. 119, Melrose, LA 71452
Marie Thérèze Coin-Coin, an enslaved woman, and Claude Thomas Pierre Metoyer, her French owner had many children together. On land acquired by land grants, the Yucca House and the African House were built. The Yucca House remained the large structure on the plantation until 1833 when the main house, known as Melrose, was built. In 2015, the African House was named a National Treasure by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

After 1884, Melrose Plantation became a hub of art and education under the ownership of John Hampton Henry and Miss Cammie Garrett Henry. Miss Cammie, as she became known, made Melrose a haven for artists and writers.

Clementine Hunter was a field hand and cook at Melrose who also became known as a renowned artist. One of the South’s premier primitive artists, began painting the people, life, and scenes of Cane River. Clementine is Louisiana’s most famous folk artist, and her paintings are on display at the plantation. Melrose Plantation hosts the longest running arts and crafts festival in the state of Louisiana every Spring. (318) 379-0055. Open Tues. - Sun., 10 am - 5 pm for tours. $. Closed Easter Sunday, July 4th, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and New Year’s Day. For additional information visit www.aphnatchitoches.net, info@melroseplantation.org or www.melroseplantation.org.
City of Lights

Natchitoches Christmas

Named as the third best holiday light show in America by Yahoo.com, Natchitoches has been called the “City of Lights” since 1926, when the city’s chief electrician, Max Burgdof, decided to string Christmas lights along the brick Front Street. To complement the lights, Burgdof and Charlie Solomon built the first set piece, an 8-foot-tall Christmas star. His gesture has evolved into six weeks of Christmas called the “Festival of Lights” in Natchitoches.

In November, Natchitoches is transformed into a holiday wonderland with over 300,000 brightly-colored Christmas lights, more than 100 Christmas set pieces made by the City’s utility department and fireworks that light up the skies along the riverbank every Saturday for six weeks beginning the weekend before Thanksgiving.

Join us on the first Saturday in December for the annual Natchitoches Christmas Festival.

In 1988, Natchitoches achieved national spotlight with the premiere of the classic southern movie Steel Magnolias. This movie was based on a true story about the citizens of Natchitoches. Mr. Robert Harling, a native of Natchitoches, wrote about the bond among a group of women surrounding the family experience with the death of Harling’s sister, Susan Harling Robinson in 1985. The title suggests the main female characters can be both as delicate as the magnolia and as tough as steel. In 1988, filming began in Natchitoches with A-list actors such as Sally Field, Julia Roberts, Shirley MacLaine, Dolly Parton, Olympia Dukakis and Daryl Hannah.

Natchitoches has been the site for other movies such as the 1959 war film The Horse Soldiers starring John Wayne, Constance Towers and William Holden.

The movie was filmed on location at Oakland Plantation now a National Park along the historic Cane River region. In the early 90’s, Academy Award winning actress Reese Witherspoon made her acting debut in The Man In The Moon.

Experience the French Colonial life as you are guided through the fort by costumed interpreters. The site, obtained for the replication of Fort St. Jean Baptiste, is located on Cane River Lake (formerly the Red River), a few hundred yards from the original fort site, set up by Louis Antoine Juchereau de St. Denis in 1714. Nearly 2,000 treated pine logs form the palisade and approximately 250,000 board feet of treated lumber went into the construction of the buildings. All of the hinges and latches were handmade at a nearby foundry.

St. Augustine Catholic Church & Cemetery

The church is the cultural center of Cane River’s historic Creole community. The church was founded in 1803 by freed slave Nicolas Augustin Metoyer. St. Augustine is celebrated as the first church built by and for free people of color in Louisiana and the second oldest in the United States. It is designated as a National Register Historic Property. Located 20 miles south of Natchitoches.

Roque House

Built by a freed slave named Yves in 1803, this structure is a fine example of French Creole architecture. Built with the traditional materials used by the earliest settlers of the area, cypress half-timbers and bousillage infill which is a mixture of mud, Spanish moss, and deer hair. Constructed on Yves 91-acre farmstead about 22 miles south of Natchitoches along Cane River. Later the house was moved to historic district in downtown Natchitoches where it sits on the riverbank of Cane River Lake.

RV Dump Station - (318) 471-0337
We suggest that groups, conferences, etc. call the local telephone numbers to negotiate rates and reserve a room during the holiday season. Please note that local rates are very affordable; rates do increase during the busy Christmas season and there are some weekends when there is a 2-night minimum. Enjoy your visit.

Northwestern was established in 1884 in the old Bullard Mansion atop a hill overlooking the bustling river port city of Natchitoches. The campus grew as the school expanded from a two-year degree for teachers at Louisiana State Normal School to the four-year education degree at Louisiana Normal College in 1921. In 1944, the school became Northwestern State College and Northwestern State University in 1970.

Today over 130 years later, three columns remain of the original structure on what is now called Normal Hill in a National Historic District, the oldest continually occupied site for higher education in Louisiana.

Northwestern State University of Louisiana stands on ground that has been dedicated to learning for one hundred twenty-five years. Although, primarily a regional institution, Northwestern also offers an opportunity for education at other satellite locations. Specifically, distance learning is available in Leesville, Shreveport, Alexandria, and Jonesville.
Great Tradition, Brighter Future

Competing at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics, Northwestern State fields 14 NCAA Division I sports teams in the Southland Conference. The Demons and Lady Demons play football, women’s volleyball, women’s soccer, men’s and women’s basketball, baseball, softball, men’s and women’s cross country, men’s and women’s indoor/outdoor track and field, and women’s tennis. NSU Athletics (NSUDemons.com) uses the motto “Great Tradition, Brighter Future” pointing to outstanding achievements including producing Olympic athletes, Academic All-Americans, dozens of pro football, basketball and baseball players, and a steady stream of NCAA postseason tournament and championship teams and athletes.

The oldest settlement on the Red River. The first written record of the town’s existence was in 1745. After the “Great Raft”, the Red River log jam, Captain Henry Miller Shreve cleared the way for incoming French settlers to prosper on the ideal river banks of Campti. The moving of the dam, however, did not expand the population. Upstream, Shreveport began to grow instead.

Goldonna - 71031
First occupied by the Indians in the area, the village was the home of salt licks who were named after Rueben Drake when the French arrived. Drake Salt Works is the site of one of the oldest salt wells in Louisiana. The Indians made use of the wells, and it was a major salt supply for Confederate forces during the War Between the States.

Once a Louisiana and Arkansas Railway, the outdoor Louisiana recreational trail links many towns in Winn and Webster Parishes.

Provencal - 71468

The town of Provencal originated around 1880 while the railroad was under construction. The village grew from a trading post and mercantile business to two hotels, three business houses, a depot, and two saloons. The village was first incorporated in the 1890’s as the Provencal Land Grant Corporation. The village was wiped out on April 13, 1913 by a tornado. What now exists as Provencal is what was rebuilt.
